

Where Agony Prevails

Graveworm

Suffering in torment again and again
Killing for pleasure where the terror reigns
Where agony prevails
Empty existence - neverending fear
Suffering in silence - agonizing pain
Where agony prevails
Plague of remembrance - reminder of scars
Inside your screams, infect them with dead
Where no live dwells

Fighting, destroying - believer of mankind
Crushing, enslaving - faith to the blind

Escaping the truth, slaying down your dreams
Deranged by lies, demons towards hell
Where agony prevails

Entering, suffering agony for years
Swallowed by a tunnel of doom
See the void of lights, silence at the end
Emotions now distort
Entering, suffering agony for years
Swallowed by a tunnel of doom
See the void of lights, silence at the end
Fear the silence

Fighting
I'm struggling with the void of hate
Slaying
All the pictures on the wall
Dying
Mourning slowly down below
Divided
By the passion of your fear

Evil blinding lights turn your mind to black
Fear the mortal soul, prepare your way to die
Totally insane - don't remember your life
Malicious words

Plague of remembrance - reminder of scars
Inside your screams, infect them with dead
Where agony prevails

Entering, suffering agony for years
Swallowed by a tunnel of doom
See the void of lights, silence at the end
Emotions now distort
Entering, suffering agony for years
Swallowed by a tunnel of doom
See the void of lights, silence at the end
Fear the silence

No more affliction when the hate rises in the sky
No more resistance if your mind divided by the lies
If your mind divided by the lies
