Magnetic Shunk

Graveyard

You’re a magnet to my mind baby don’t know what to do
But I would plow through shame to sit right next to you
It’s nobody’s business who you give your kiss
But I’m telling all the world what they’re about to miss

I know you’ve done a lot of loving before you did me
But I could never guess how sweet it would be
Practice makes perfect now ain’t that true
So get ready honey now I’m gonna do you

Nothing feels better than your skin on my skin
Don’t care about the others or where you’ve been
I can play dirty and I know you play rough
One, two, three, four shakes is never enough

I know you’ve done a lot of loving before you did me
But I could never guess how sweet it would be
Practice makes perfect now ain’t that true
So get ready honey now I’m gonna do you

When you walk into a room floating across the floor
I get awestruck I get dumb an easy prey a sitting duck
When you lay your eyes on me with that smile on your face
I wanna feel your touch again oh I can’t wait until we…

No need to be gently baby I like it raw
Treat me like I was crime and you are the law

Bite me spank me baby pull my hair
I’m gonna rub you the right way and kiss you right there

I know you’ve done a lot of loving before you did me
But I could never guess how sweet it would be
Practice makes perfect now ain’t that true
So get ready honey now I’m gonna do you
