

The Enforcer

Graveyard

A creature out of hell, the bringer of pain
The servant of the black one, fanatic and insane
A leader of the storm to change white into black
The infernal will arise and his army will spread
A mighty one is coming with thunder and lightning
The obsessed ones within, destroying and fighting
Heeding the arrival of the coming damnation
Of the stalking demons and the last annihilation

For all kinds on earth the ending is coming
The fools are resisting, the others are running
The screams of the dead are shaking the air
An endless hailstorm quakes the ground, a true nightmare
The might of destruction lies in his hand
No way to stop the world's fate, impossible to end
The apparition of the dark one was prophesied before
And now the spell's fulfilled in this never ending war

The warlord of the devil will reach the surface
Will call the demons and shroud the world in blaze
The will of the devil is collective in one mind
To kill all life and the human kind

The enforcer of the dark
The enforcer of the end
The enforcer out of hell
Allmighty enforcer

Tomorrow no longer exists, the malice is invading
And a crowd of damned ones prepares the world's erasing
They feast off their descendants to obey their master
And their mission is going on, faster and faster

The enforcer of the dark
The enforcer of the end
The enforcer out of hell
Allmighty enforcer

All the world's destiny's given up by God
The settlements are burning and the seas are filled with blood
They try to stop it, defenders show the fist
But their voices die away in the breathtaking mist
Sent into eternity by the immortal serpents
They arrive in hell and become the enemy's servants
The curse lain on the earth is no longer denied
Giving up resistance against the opposing might

The warlord of the devil will reach the surface
Will call the demons and shroud the world in blaze
The will of the devil is collective in one mind
To kill all life and the human kind

The enforcer of the dark
The enforcer of the end
The enforcer out of hell
Allmighty enforcer...

Floods of blood cover the hills, a storm of murder and pain
In command of the one the living ones are slain
The servants fulfill their fate, all heaven's disaster
And their mission is going on, faster and faster
