

To Dust

Graveyard

Walking down the final tunnel I don't see the shining light But a foggy veil of shadow tugs me down with powerful might

Down through the rotting ways of flesh
I lay my spirit to refresh

And then, without pain, ache and wound
I feel my heart restarts to pound

Immortalized by the horned one, I know my soul will change - To dust
By a firestream flowing through hades all hope is doomed to tur n - To dust
Thronged by the damned I seek the light to devastate it all - T o dust
And the final words before rebirth: Ashes to ashes and dust - T
o dust

I had to leave myself behind me as my heart refused to beat
And as if I've ever known it I'm aware of my next deed

Immortalized by the horned one, I know my soul will change - To
dust
By a firestream flowing through hades all hope is doomed to tur
n - To dust
Thronged by the damned I seek the light to devastate it all - T
o dust
And the final words before rebirth: Ashes to ashes and dust - T
o dust

Deep in hell where I eke out now I am freed of pain and sadness
In the claws of the infernal is the reign of death and madness

To Dust - To Dust - To Dust - To Dust
