

Atlantic

Grayscale

My eyes are tired, blood pumped with caffeine
This place feels more and more like nowhere to me
I'm sick of waiting for a fire to ignite
I could just leave here without a goodbye

I'll burn down this bridge
And set my life up in smoke
You used to be mine
My world used to shine like gold

I want to go
I want to go
Run from this panic
I need the unknown
I've had enough
I've had enough
Run to Atlantic
Away from this home

Was never strong without you here
Would lightning bugs make you reappear?
Through the fog the buildings push through the clouds
I know there's more than what is holding me down

I'll burn down this bridge
And set my life up in smoke
You used to be mine
My world used to shine like gold

I want to go
I want to go
Run from this panic
I need the unknown
I've had enough
I've had enough
Run to Atlantic
Away from this home

Oh I see what's in front of me, in front of me
Oh I see what's in front of me, in front of me

I'll burn down this bridge
And set my life up in smoke
You used to be mine
My world used to shine like gold, gold

I want to go
I want to go
Run from this panic
I need the unknown
I've had enough
I've had enough
Run to Atlantic
Away from this home

Run from this panic
I need the unknown

Run to Atlantic
Away from this home
