Let It Rain

Grayscale

See your clouds taking shape
I feel the rush of static on my face
I'm going crazy, haven't slept in days
Can't live with myself and my selfish ways

Bring the rain, and let it wash me away

Let it rain all night
I wish that it could wash away everything you've done
I pray that I could pull apart your head and fix you up

I still hear your stories, the lessons you always told me
It never meant a thing, yeah never mind, no worries
While you sleep away your days, I live in black and white shade s
You were never good enough to say you're sorry

Let it rain all night
I wish that it could wash away everything you've done
Let it rain on us
I pray that I could pull apart your head and fix you up

I'd set you straight, I'd wear your blood like war paint
I'd wear your blood like war paint
Blood like war paint

Let it rain all night
I wish that it could wash away everything you've done
Let it rain on us
I pray that I could pull apart your head and fix you up

Bring the rain, and let it wash me away
Bring the rain, I'll see you again someday
Bring the rain, bring the rain
Bring the rain, and let it wash me away

Storming in my head, I feel it everyday
I bottled up the guilt you left when you went away
Hangs like a locket you gave me
I'd set you straight, I'd wear your blood like war paint
