

Painkiller Weather

Grayscale

Breeze is perfect
Mind is floating
High is coming on
Take a moment
Let it sink in
'Til the past is gone
Your passing words
They're flowing through me
Like this opium
'Cause days without you
Are my reminder
That there's something's wrong

I thought that love was one thing you could
Spend as much of as you want
But not all at once
Lord it kills me how you gave in
Tourniquet not tight enough
Temptations won (yeah they always won)

I loved a girl named Madison
And she liked to do heroin
Pull the shades, let the sunshine in
She doesn't know what room she's in, yeah
Painkiller weather
Painkiller ah-ah-ah-ah

Showed me patience
Taught me honesty
And decadence
Warm behind my eyes
Watched your motions
Falling out of love
My intentions
Soft and battling
I'm my mother's son
Reached in my chest
Breathe in gentle
Poison stings my lungs

I thought that love was one thing you could
Spend as much of as you want
I guess not all at once
Lord it kills me how you gave in
Tourniquet not tight enough
Temptations won (yeah they always won)

I loved a girl named Madison
And she liked to do heroin
Pull the shades, let the sunshine in
She doesn't know what room she's in, yeah
Painkiller weather

I loved a girl named Madison

(She doesn't know what room she's in, yeah)

I loved a girl named Madison

Painkiller weather (it feels like)
Painkiller ah-ah-ah-ah (it feels like)
