

Destroyer

Great American Ghost

I'm the name splashed across your lips
The black keys are your finger tips
You just need to remember this
That preying isn't purging if it don't mean shit
This is permanence
This is ill intent
I would have fucking died for you
Now I wish that you were dead

You know
You love me
Won't get
Enough of me
Can't keep my name out your fucking mouth

You're not a man
I'll tell you why
Men don't lie about their fucking lives

Every lie that you've told
Will come back around when you grow old
Every thing that you've ever said
Will be the nail in your coffin in the end

You know
You love me
Won't get
Enough of me
Can't keep my name out your fucking mouth

You're not a man
I'll tell you why
Men don't lie about their fucking lives

Keep my name out your fucking mouth

Every lie that you've ever sold
Will come back around when you grow old
Every thing that you've ever said
Will be the nail in your coffin
In the end
