

Lifeless

Great American Ghost

You have fucking taken from me
All my empathy
There is nothing you can do
I'll put your bones beneath the ground

Lifeless you lay
My hatred remains

I feel the anger in you
I feel you hide the lies
I feel the tension between us
Don't try to run and hide

Don't you try to come back to me
I need room to breathe
Say I didn't fucking try
I'll put your bones beneath the ground

Lifeless you lay
My hatred remain
Lie alone
Die alone
Lifeless you lay with your bones in the ground

Bite your fucking tongue

Lifeless you fucking lay
Your bones in the ground
