Come on reason
I'm believing
Tell me what you know
Hold allegiance
To the seasons
As they let you go
But I can see your eyes
I can see your eyes grieving
I can see your eyes
I can see your eyes are leaving
Tell me what you know

Keep my secret
Cause I'm reeling
Tell me where to go
I can't stop it
I would swallow
Anything you told
I believe your lies
I believe your lies, they're leading
I can see your eyes
I can see your eyes, they're grieving
Tell me what you know

I'll walk away
I'll break anything you want
I'll walk away
You'll see

I keep running from tomorrow but I'm magnetized
I can't stop it
I would follow you and your disguise
Cause I believe your lies
I believe your lies they're leading
And I can see your eyes
I can see your eyes they're grieving
Tell me what you know

I'll walk away
I'll break anything you want
I'll walk away
You'll see

If you wait another day you'll be lost to me
If you wait another day this time

I'll walk away
I'll break anything you want
I'll walk away
You'll see
