

She-Viper

Greedy Invalid

Why do you need me now?
It's already too late
A short term termination of pain
An oral deprivation in vain

These are crusts of your conclusion the only darkness you can see
Into our extermination
I hope you will die for me
Even though I've never trusted your poor judgment in the case
You know you will never want me and today we'll see the chase

I possessed the evil,
she possessed my life
No more evidence needed
Plenty's more than enough
