

Three times

Greedy Invalid

Three times and more you hear the call
Three times you see eternity
Three times you are ready to try
Things you don't know still hurts your soul

I saw her smile and that was all
A piece of esoteric world
Moment of touch,
Moment of kiss,
Moment of everlasting bliss
There was a separation
It took my breath away
I ran towards her but then I tasted death

Town full of ghosts demon of coast
Nowhere to go you're getting slow
Devil utmost that's god in disguise
Friend, don't you know
It's a trap for the weak
