

Leaves of Yesteryear

Green Carnation

It's always loneliness

Crusaders of empty space
Born into a lifelong chase
I still hear the soldiers marching on
Marching from the great beyond

Come to me
Come to me

I ask of you some faith in me
A little glimpse of what will be
Heart and soul all combined
As winter falls and stars align

Mind over matter
We are leaves of yesteryear
Where loneliness feeds off the crumbs left behind
I hope you'll remember my name

Come to me
Come to me
[Interlude]
Nothing's happening here
To rescue you
I'm always hoping
It's always recording us
It's always loneliness

See right through me, keep on walking
Past your anger, keep on walking
Waves of sorrow, do you listen?
Blessed or haunted, no more time

Love tasted, some wasted
Forgiven, not forgotten
Sun is still rising for the living
Come join me, hide in me

Come join me
Hide in me

Mind over matter
We are leaves of yesteryear
I hope you'll remember my name
I hope you'll remember my name
