

Sentinels

Green Carnation

They spoke of the loneliest shadow
A thousand year old enemy
When man bowed for souls of the new world
They spoke of the scepter that judged us
Cutting our young to the ground
The mad took the sane to the altar
And with a word a new king was crowned

(Seek and then you shall find)
(Keep the herd under control)

Am I just too blind to see?
The sentinels of chaos
For the truth shall set you free
The sentinels of chaos
And I walk my given path
And I walk on my behalf
And I speak when spoken to
All in the eyes of the first

Follow my lead

Between the doubts and the thoughts you are thinking
Lies a fact with an alternate truth
The old demons are no longer with us
They're online, shaping our youth

(Seek and then you shall find)
(Keep the herd under control)

Am I just too blind to see?
The sentinels of chaos
For the truth shall set you free
The sentinels of chaos
And I walk my given path
And I walk on my behalf
And I speak when spoken to
All in the eyes of the first

Behold, we have a new king
Lead the way, we'll follow you blind
This is the source code of God himself
Into the future, inside your mind
Behold the riches we grant you
No such thing as an honest defeat
This is the message you can't ignore
This is controlling an alternate delete

Am I just too blind to see?
The sentinels of chaos
For the truth shall set you free
The sentinels of chaos
And I walk my given path
And I walk on my behalf
And I speak when spoken to
All in the eyes of the first

And I walk my given path
And I walk on my behalf
And I speak when spoken to
All in the eyes of the first

All in the eyes of the first
