Gonna build it up just to burn it down You're a princess, I'm a fucking clown Stop the presses cause I'm killing time Won't you be my bloody valentine

You're just a fucking kid And no one ever gives you a break You want a señorita And now your heart is gonna break

You're angel blue With teenage traces Angel blue With pretty faces

Stab my heart like a stick in the mud
Cut my chest just to see the blood
Now I'm singing out the alphabet
As the tears are putting out my cigarette
We'll hit the cemetary so we can see the holiday lights
Waking up the dead and everything'll be alright

Alright
Stuck in the middle of Heaven and Hell
Alright
Trying to find my better angels

Stab my heart like a stick in the mud Cut my chest just to see the blood Stop the presses cause I'm killing time Won't you be my bloody valentine

You're just a fucking kid And no one ever gives you a break You want a señorita And now your heart is gonna break
