

Cigarettes and Valentines

Green Day

I don't wanna go back home
I don't wanna kiss goodnight
Let us paralyze this moment
'til it dies

To the end of the earth
Under the valley of the stars
There's a car crashing
Deep inside my heart

Take a ride to the avenues
Across the Great Divide
There's a siren screaming
"I'm alive", it cries

Red alert is the color
Of your paper valentines
Intertwined on this moment
Passing by

Take a ride through the avenues
Across the Great Divide
There's a siren screaming
"I'm alive", it cries

Red alert is the color
Of your paper valentines
Intertwined on this moment
Passing by

Oh, come away with me tonight
With cigarettes and valentines

Cigarettes and Valentines!

So, come away with me tonight
With cigarettes and valentines

Oh, come away with me tonight
With cigarettes and valentines

Cigarettes and Valentines!
