

Forever Now

Green Day

My name is Billie, And im freaking out
I thought before I was
And I can't get it figured out
I sit alone with my thoughts and prayers
Screaming my memories
As if I was never there

Standing at the edge of the world
Its giving me the chills
Looking down the edge of the world
Lost in a tangle
Its freaking me out
Burning lights and Blackouts
From the edge of the world
From the edge of the world

Im like a punk rocker on labor day
How the hell did I work so hard
To be born this way?
I never learned to read or write so well
But I can play the guitar
Until it hurts like hell

Standing at the edge of the world
Its giving me the chills
Looking down the edge of the world
Lost in a tangle
Its freaking me out
Burning lights and Blackouts

From the edge of the world
From the edge of the world

If this is what you call the good life
I want a better way to die
If this is what you call the good life
I want a better way to die

Oh, I dont wanna think about tomorrow
Dont wanna think about this road
It doesnt matter anyway
I wanna start a revolution
I wanna hear it on my radio
Ill put it off another day
I want a new conspiracy
And the silence of a thousand cries
So hurry up
I want a better way to die

Im running late to Somewhere Now
I dont want to be
Where the future and promises
Ain't what it used to be
I never wanted to compromise
Or bargain with my soul
How did life on the wild side
Ever get so full

Somewhere now
Dont wanna think about tomorrow
Somewhere now
Dont wanna think about the road
Somewhere now
Oh I wanna start a revolution
Somewhere now
(I a'int gonna stand in line no more!)
Don't wanna think about tomorrow!
(I a'int gonna stand in line no more!)
Don't wanna think about the road
(I a'int gonna stand in line no more!)
I wanna hear it on my radio, I'll put it on another day!
(I a'int gonna stand in line no more!)