An export of the revolution

2. She is the first voice of the last ones in the line

She'll drag the lake to keep the vendetta alive

Somebody shot the president

And no one knows where Maria went?

R: Maria, Maria, Maria,

where did you go?...

3. She smashed the radio with the board of education

Turn up the static left of the state of the nation

Turn up the flame, step on the gas

Burning the flag at half mast

She's a rebel's forgotten son

An export of the revolution
