

Life in the Wind

Green River Ordinance

Johnny was a man, from East Birmingham
Hitching for another wind
So he traded his tie for a railroad ride
Nobody seen him since

Yeah baby there's a life in the wind
Let yourselves out and jump right in
Tell your brother no it ain't no sin
You gotta roll where there's life in the wind

Jenny wait tables, at the cafe's cradle
Dreamt of singing country songs
So she packed up her Jeep for Nashville Tennessee
Now she's singing all night long

Yeah baby there's a life in the wind
Let your hair down and jump right in
Tell your sister no it ain't no sin
You gotta roll where there's life in the wind

You only get, one life to live
And it's too damn short to be safe with it
So sing a song baby, and deep dance
Cuz it's never too late to take a chance, alright

What's the good in what might have been
Gotta see for yourself what's around that bend
It's bona fide, a hell of a ride waiting to begin
So come on, so come on, yeah

Yeah baby there's a life in the wind
Let move you till you're free time spend
Tell your brother no it ain't no sin
You gotta roll where there's life in the wind

Yeah baby there's a life in the wind
Let your hair down and jump right in
Tell your sister no it ain't no sin
Gotta roll where there's life in the wind
Gotta go where there's life in the wind
One road where there's life, in the wind
