

Beauty and Pain

Greensky Bluegrass

Please take the words to carry away
There's others in need of the song
We'll all bury our mothers before we would like
But there's time left to make right today

We are singing to comfort pain
We all want to feel high again
If my path is to worry, then I'll walk in shame
Cause I'd rather find beauty in pain

If we fail to accomplish the tasks we've begun
The breath should fall short of the song
And we measure the grace of the deeds that we've done
To find peace with what's been pursued

We are singing to comfort pain
We all want to feel high again
If my path is to worry, then I'll walk in shame
Cause I'd rather find beauty in pain

Well we're low in the barrel, we're long overdue
With little left to invest
And were filled with the efforts that most times were empty
Find strength still somehow to go on

We are singing to comfort pain
We all want to feel high again
If my path is to worry, then I'll walk in shame
Cause I'd rather find beauty in pain
If my path is to worry, then I'll walk in shame
Cause I'd rather find beauty in pain
