Merely Avoiding

Greensky Bluegrass

Gotta hand on the door, but my mind is still in your dress
Gathering my things I'm leaving now I guess Made along list of everything that they said we could've been
But forget 'em all, baby, cuz I'm leavin' in the wind

These answers don't elude me I'm merely avoiding
What I feared all along that they could be

Now you're lookin' through me like the ones before that way
And I'm shakin' my head cuz I never thought this was all that w e gave
I'm leavin' you, but you left me too when your heart let go of mine
I could stay one more night, but I believe it's a waste of time

These answers don't elude me I'm merely avoiding
What I feared all along that they could be

I've been wrong and guilty all for the price of love
We had a dream of forever, but now that's just something...that we've heard of

A way to find what we were it's a legend to us now
We've gotta let it all go so we can't get along somehow

These answers don't elude me I'm merely avoiding
What I feared all along that they could be
