

Old Barns

Greensky Bluegrass

I can remember 2.06 a gallon
Still I can't recall how fast I was drivin'
Didn't wake up feelin 'scared
Cause you're the one I love and you're standing there

Can't touch my heart
It's not my time
Bust my bones and throw my body on the line
Cause I've got love to fill me in
I've family to help me re-begin

Old barns don't tear down
Let 'em stand proud until they fall to the ground

A strange feeling waking up to meet my Savior
This whole bizarre ballet that I lived through
But I'm not living all alone
These wounds of mine will set me free

Old barns don't tear down
Let 'em stand proud until they fall to the ground

I feel like every man should know what I know
This boy I've raised will take care of things when I go
But I'm not looking on scared
'Cause you're the one I love and you're standing there

Old barns don't tear down
Let 'em stand proud until they fall to the ground
