

Room Without a Roof

Greensky Bluegrass

Tupelo, Mississippi
Somewhere in a dream
Feeling you, missing me
Lost out here on the wind

That keeps moving me
Down the white line
Imagining looking back
Hoping that you're all I see

With all your heart tonight
There's nothing they can't feel
There's nothing they can't see you and me
I'm a room without a roof
Walls that don't tell time
Forever I'll be waiting here for you
Patiently

Some say I've wasted
All that time can give Criticizing, analyzing
Everything that's put in front of me

Stayed too long at your table
Waited jealously
Spiked the punch and broke your heart
All the while not knowing who to be

With all your heart tonight
There's nothing they can't feel
There's nothing they can't see you and me
I'm a room without a roof
And walls that don't tell time
Forever I'll be waiting here for you
Patiently

And you don't need me
I'll only get in the way
Lonely nights and bar room sights
Lost out in the neon endlessly

Promise you the world
I've tried everything
To give you stars and anything
You ever need to get back to the world

With all your heart tonight
There's nothing they can't see
There's nothing they can't feel you and me
I'm a room without a roof
And walls that don't tell time
Forever I'll be waiting here for you
For you
