Create or destroy today

You choose

It's all in you, one and the same, whole

It's all in you, one and the same, whole

It's all in you, one and the same, whole

It's all in you

It's all in you, one and the same, whole

It's all in you

It's all in you

It's all in you, one and the same, whole

Sensations fade, these travelled poles

A fall from grace can bring you close

One and the same, whole

Who you gonna feed today?

These barking dogs been left astray

A barren land, no life in there

In such a darkness, the light must bear

Create or destroy

Create or destroy

Create or destroy

Create or destroy

Create or destroy

You choose

It's all in you, one and the same, whole
