London Bridge is fallin' down
All my mates walkin' 'round with frowns
Can't seem to make no sense of all this rain
With your rules and regulations, why you so stiff?
I don't want nothing that seems too different
Stuck between your lines and all your lies

But you can't take my city from me
But you can't take my city from me
But you can't take my city from me
But you can't take my city from me

Try numbin' me with them frequencies
It's real sick, I lean
Distracted by these screams, I agree
Ignorance is bliss, yeah, it's beautiful
As long as we alignin', actin' suitable
This life shit is achievable
'Cause all that matters's what you look like
No need to think twice, no more
Anything you need, can buy it from a store
Nine ninety-nine for a pause

But you can't take my city from me
Nah, you can't take my city from me
Nah, you can't take my city from me
Nah, you can't take my city from me

Ah, ah, ah, ah
Heavy on my mind, every single day
Trying to take the vibe of my city away
Heavy on my mind, every single day
Trying to take the vibe of my city away
Heavy on my mind, every single day
Trying to take the vibe of my city away
Heavy on my mind, every single day
Trying to take the vibe of my city away

But please don't take my city from me
Nah, you can't take my city from me
Nah, you can't take my city from me
Nah, you can't take my city from me
