

Glory

Greentea Peng

It's a sunny day
It's a sunny day
It's a sunny day
It's a, it's a sunny day
It's a sunny day

All these clouds, they dissipating
No more wars left to debate
No more strength need demonstrating
All your children living free
Free of tyranny
All of humanity, coming together radically

In your glory
Glory
Glory

In awe of all creation
Every woman, child, and nation
One holy congregation
All type of variations, patience
An obligation to devotion
An obligation to devotion

It's a sunny day
It's a sunny day
It's a sunny day
It's a sunny day

Tell them it's a sunny day
All these clouds have gone away
We see it straight, we see it clearly
No more towers tryna reach thee
We tuned in from base to crown
Spread the mother's love around
All emitted sacred sound with our foot rooted in ground

We revel in your glory
Glory
Glory
We revel in your glory
Glory
