

Jimtastic Blues

Greentea Peng

Never known
Sadness like this before
Even though
We've been acquainted I'm sure
Since you're gone
I hear your voice in my head
"It's alright"
My darling, you said

Now I'm blue
Now I'm blue
Missing you
Missing you

I see you
And your atheist blues
Smiling face
I always saw right through
If only
I could have one more day
I'd fix your heart
Back together again

But now I'm blue
Now I'm blue
Missing you
Missing you

We've got to fight for our right to party
We've got to fight for our right to party
We've got to fight for our right to party, to party
We've got to fight for our right to party
