

Make Noise

Greentea Peng

This is for the collective and not the culture, no
Capsule collection, no culture vulture, no
This is for the love and all my mankind
For light beings and alike minds
Who take their time to read between the lines
Decipher the lies and the disguise
Greentea Sensi open your eye

This is for the love and this for the skies
For Krishna and Jah, for Atum's eyes
This is for my brother and my sisters
For my dad up high, yo, you know I miss ya
This is for my J I Jii's and all the devotees
On the frontline keeping it holy
On the frontline keeping it holy

This is for the youth that can't be silenced
Nor battered, nor beaten
Though you try confine us
This is for your heart and not your mind
No man-made constructs, no divide

This is for your spirit, for your loudest voice
For our right to party
This is our noise
We were sung into creation
We have no choice but to chant out loud
Down Babylon, rejoice
Make noise, make noise, make noise
Make noise, make noise, make noise
Make noise, make noise, make noise

It's the seng seng family
Doing it properly
It's the seng seng family
We does it properly
It's the seng seng family
We do it properly
It's the seng seng family
Doing it properly
