

Risin'

Greentea Peng

Rising, falling, rising, falling
Skies is calling, skies is calling
No more talking, talking, stalling
Woke up today, brand new morning
Rising, falling, rising, falling
Skies is calling, skies is calling
Many blessings where you are walking
Can't you feel the love is burning?

Walking down grey pavement roads
Watching the squares as the movie unfolds
I'm sure I've been here before
But I keep my eyes open 'cause I'm sure that there's more
Maybe I'll choose to smile, yeah, it's nice to smile
We ain't seen a smile in a while
Oh, baby, why you in a rush?
We are on our own way, there's no need to push
(Ah-ah-ah)

Rising, falling, rising, falling
Skies is calling, skies is calling
No more talking, talking, stalling
Woke up today, brand new morning
Rising, falling, rising, falling
Skies is calling, skies is calling
Many blessings where you are walking
Can't you feel the love is burning?

Eyes outside while I'm riding on the bus
Face pressed to glass and I'm feeling kind of buzzed
In the morning when my energy is high
There ain't nothing better than a bright blue sky
I'm riding the wave all the way to the shore
Never wanted nothing 'til I knew I wanted more
Wandering emotion, sometimes I stand still Take time to decipher my thoughts from my feels

Rising, falling, rising, falling
Skies is calling, skies is calling
No more talking, talking, stalling
Woke up today, brand new morning
Rising, falling, rising, falling
Skies is calling, skies is calling
Many blessings where you are walking
Can't you feel the love is burning?

We rise and we fall down
The skies are calling
Some days rise, some days fall
New days equal, stand tall
I ain't perfect at all, but I'm trying to raise
Yeah, I'm trying to raise
Like the sun, you do shine over ways that ain't mine
Trying to stay align inside all of this crazy
While my demons try tempting
Some days rise, some days fall
New days equal, stand tall

I ain't perfect at all, but I'm trying to raise
Yeah, I'm trying to raise
Like the sun, you do shine over ways that ain't mine
Trying to stay align inside all of this crazy
