

Saturn

Greentea Peng

I, I

It's the Saturn in me
It's the Saturn in me
It's the Saturn in me

It's the Saturn in me
That needs your flattery
What's the matter with me?
Playing with energies
I got to harness my power or else I'll end up here out (Powers)
One dimension ego, just tryna feed my soul (Just tryna feed my soul)

It's the Saturn in me
It's the Saturn in me
It's the Saturn in me

Floating naked with you
In the water's most blue
Picture clouds up above
Yeah, how deep is your love?
My friend Earth spread his wings
And the waves, they do sing
Diamonds sun start to skin
Keep wonderin' where to begin

Have you ever, have you ever, have you ever even really loved somebody?
Have you ever, have you ever, have you ever even really loved somebody?
(Have you ever)
Have you ever even really loved somebody?
If you don't love yourself

You still sparkle with my eyes half-open
You deep, deep, baby, just like the ocean
And I'm love, and I'm drunk off your potion
Heavy, you need me, you stuck in a motion
All I offer is my whole devotion
All your moves are my favourite motions
You get me thinkin' and you got me hopin'
Perfect harmony, baby, without it

Have you ever, have you ever, have you ever even really loved somebody?
Have you ever, have you ever, have you ever even really loved somebody?
(Have you ever)
Have you ever even really loved somebody?
If you don't love yourself

It's the Saturn in me
It's the Saturn in me
It's the Saturn in me
