

Pray more, smoke less
I can't rely upon [?] for my happiness
No more

I've been young and I've been dumb
I've been stuck inside and it's not the one
Yes, I'm done
I'm done feeling numb, my time has come
You just don't serve me no more
You don't deserve me no more

I can see all your floors
You don't open no doors for me, baby
Most of the time you just drive me crazy
