

Your Mind

Greentea Peng

Sorry to say, sorry to say
But I'm here to stay

I know you thought I couldn't be
Anything for real
I know that you
You doubt yourself still
I thought that by now
You could see all that you are
Don't look backwards
You've come too far, star

Sorry to say
It's disappointing when I let you down, baby
I'm my own worst enemy
No one can judge me harder
Than I judge myself
Thoughts in the way
Carry them 'round, heavy like a bag, lady
But I'm here to stay
This voice of reason
Yeah, objective notes to self

I know you didn't want me to achieve nothing
I know that you'll
Hex me with your words again
I know that you have been broken
And expect nothing from man
Only disappointment
I see you still
Cower at your power
I see you still doubt the world is ours
But I'm here to shower you
With messages from higher you
In spite of you inside of you
There's light in you
And fight in you

Sorry to say
It's disappointing when I let you down baby
I'm my own worst enemy
No one can judge me harder
Than I judge myself
Thoughts in the way
Carry them 'round, heavy like a bag, lady
But I'm here to stay
This voice of reason
Yeah, objective notes to self

Remember I'm always
Just a breath away
Stored away
Behind
Unnecessary accessories
Make room for me
Your mind
Make room for me

Be kind to your mind
Make room for me
Your mind
Your mind
Your mind
Your mind
Your mind

Your mind
My mind
My mind
Thoughts in the way
But I'm here to stay

My mind, my mind, my mind, my mind, mind
Thoughts in your way
My mind
My mind, my mind, my mind
