

I Don't Believe

Greenwheel

I don't believe in anything she says to me
And I don't believe that she cares for me
Is it me that she loves
Or is it someone else
Cause I've got to know before I leave

Is it the warmth in her touch
Or the sweetness that's in her kiss
My heart's telling me never let go of this
Is it the look in her eyes
Or the brightness that's in her smile
I'd walk the world for her
She couldn't walk me a mile
She couldn't walk me a mile

All the days go past
And the time sleeps away
It happened all so fast
I couldn't make her stay
And all the memories she left
Well they rest in my head
Sometimes I feel that I'd be better off dead
I'd be better off dead

Is it the warmth in her touch
Or the sweetness that's in her kiss
My heart's telling me, never let go of this
Is it the look in her eyes
Or the brightness that's in her smile
I'd walk the world for her
She couldn't walk me a mile
She couldn't walk me a mile

Is it the warmth in her touch
Or the sweetness that's in her kiss
My heart's telling me, never let go of this
Is it the look in her eyes
Or the brightness that's in her smile
I'd walk the world for her
She couldn't walk me a mile
She couldn't walk me a mile
Yea yea yea yea
