

I had a drink and it got me to drinking How many more till im on my back I had a thought and it got me to thinking It seems im rolling right off the tracks I see you walking across the room I like the line that you're selling My razorblade wants a taste of you Come a little closer darlin Now i see the knife that cuts me in Im counting on a letdown cant see that ill never be back again Now i see it
Now i see the knife that cuts me in
im counting on a letdown
cant see that ill never be back again come on g-g-g-give me some more she was someone only seen on the weekends and now im calling on her every day her voice is in my head and shes screaming you know you cant ever turn me away me and you we should leave the room come see the line that im working i know you've got nothing better to do and the night is only started
now i see the knife that cuts me in
im counting on a letdown
i cant say that ill never be back again and now i see it
now i see the knife that cuts me in
im counting on a letdown
i cant say that ill never be back again
g-g-g-give me some more
g-g-g-give me some more now i need the knife that cuts me in i know there'll be a let down i told you that i would be back again, oh
g-g-g-give me some more
now i see the knife that cuts me in
im counting on a letdown
i cant say that ill never be back again
im counting on a letdown
i cant say that ill never be back again
g-g-g-give me some more some more, some more oh
