Trigger

Greenwheel

drunk on fears and past tense love is this what ive been dreaming of eyes that will not give me rest from the things i cannot hide dont temp me dont tempt me dont ive got my finger on the trigger

dont temp me dont tempt me dont

fragile hands to hold me up what have my nightmares become guilty conscience has no shame to occupy your every day

dont temp me dont tempt me dont

dont temp me no dont tempt me dont

ive got my finger on the trigger dont temp me dont tempt me no dont walking on the fault lines a shaking of our waking life keeping distance from the rest of those who know themselves the best

dont temp me dont tempt me dont

dont temp me dont tempt me dont
