

Back Home Again

Greg Brown

Sunrise in Seattle--a whiter shade of pale-- Caught a flight to Salt Lake City and--guess what--it was late Bumped into Denver in the afternoon and into C.R. by ten Hoping you would meet me at the gate--

Mmmhmm--son of the restless wind
 back home again--
Mmmhmm--son of the restless wind
 back home again--

Airport rent-a-car motel nightclubs restaurant motel
Rent-a-car back to the airport
 Have a nice day I hope I'll be done traveling before it's time to go again I never unpack my suitcase all the way--

Mmmhmm--son of the restless wind
 back home again--
Mmmhmm--son of the restless wind
 back home again--

~~~♪♪♪ ~~~

When it all is said and done some more is said and done They tell you you got to keep reaching but they never say what for Do we ever really live the life we want to live I put the keys in my pocket, grab my stuff, and walk up to our front door--

Mmmhmm--honey, are you still my friend
    I'm back home again--

Mmmhmm--honey, are you still my friend
    I'm back home again--

I'm back home again
I'm back home again
I'm back home again
