

Enough

Greg Brown

When your head come forward and you dance all about your legs start shaking and your tongue hung out Its enough, goddammit, it's enough when the room was moving to that dance you done when you kicked off your boot and put out the sun when the house was rocking and the stars keep time fruit starts jumping right off the vine

it's enough, goddammit, it's enough

when you woman your woman and I man my man and we get to loving oh honey like we can

standing out here
looking at the sky
feeling you
I shout up on high
it's enough, goddammit, it's enough
