

Solid Heart

Greg Brown

I am a good brother, and I have a solid heart,
I wonder if I'll ever get to see my sisters,
I hear the whispers of angels,
I want my family together again,
Oh, I am a good brother, and I have a solid heart.

I pretend to be a tiger, who is cunning and smart,
I touch sorrow and grief, and make happiness where I
walk,
I feel grief about my family.
I worry about my brother and my mother.
Oh, I am a good brother, and I have a solid heart.

I understand that life hurts many,
I say and know that I love my family,
I dream about my family being together,
I try to help my family,
I hope my brother and sisters still love me,
Oh, I am a good brother, and I have a solid heart.

Oh, I am a good brother, and I have a solid heart.
Oh, I am a good brother, and I have a solid heart.
