

Vivid

Greg Brown

You gave me flowers, all wet with dew,
You gave me flowers,
I'd like to give you something too.

Vivid flowers, raggedy yellow red and blue,
Smell of rain and summer.
Vivid, just like you.

You gave me music with the bouquet from your hand,
You gave me a living song,
Something I could understand.

Let's go walking when the party is through,
You gave me so much,
I'd like to give you something too.

You gave me flowers, all wet with dew,
You gave me flowers,
I'd like to give you something too.

Mmmm...
