

Who Do You Think You're Fooling

Greg Brown

Ah who do ya, who do ya, who do ya think you're foolin
Who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya
Who do ya think you're foolin
Ah who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya
Who do ya think you're foolin

I wouldn't miss her at all if she ran away With some other fella had a real good time, never wrote or called
I wouldn't miss her at all, I'd be doin fine
I'd get myself a great big bottle of wine, have a party
I wouldn't miss her at all, I'd be doin fine
If she ran away from me I wouldn't miss her at all, no I wouldn't, never would A little voice in my head said who do ya, ah who do ya,
who do ya think you're foolin
Ah who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do
ya
Who do ya think you're foolin

Sunflower over by the garden wall You're gonna bloom through the spring and the summer and the fall Ain't no jaybird gonna fly down, pick the seeds out of your face Leave you a sad brown skeleton when the fall rains come down
No you're gonna shine, ah you're gonna shine, you're gonna shine sunflower, shine all the time, shine A little voice in its head said who do ya, ah who do ya, who do ya think you're foolin Ah who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do
ya
Who do ya think you're foolin

Ain't gonna blow it up, ain't gonna mess it up There ain't no little babies gonna be born have a real hard time for the color of their skin Where they were born, why they were born
Ain't gonna blow it up, ain't gonna mess it up People want to love one another, be kind to one another, dance with one another Don't ya know that the people want to love one another, don't want to hate one another People want to love one another, be kind to one another People want to love one another, don't wanna hate one another Ain't gonna blow it up, ain't gonna mess it up no
A little voice in everybody's head said who do ya, ah who do ya, who do ya think you're foolin Ah who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do
ya
Who do ya think you're foolin

Ah now who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya, who do ya

Who do ya think you're foolin
