

I'm Not Your Enemy

Greg Holden

Standing on the wrong side of the wall
Trying, trying to make sense of it all
But my arms are open, but from the way you look at me
It's gonna take some time before you see

That I'm not your enemy, just an unfamiliar friend
You might not recognize me from before the war began
And how could you know after everything they told you
That I'm not your enemy, I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy, only love can save us now

Staring down the wrong end of a gun
My heart's sinking, is this what we've become?
Desperate and divided with no one backing down
Don't turn away from me now

Oh, I'm not your enemy, just an unfamiliar friend
You might not recognize me from before the war began
And how could you know after everything they told you
That I'm not your enemy, I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy, only love can save us now

Oh, only love can save us now
Whoa, only love can save us now
Oh, only love can save us now

I'm not your enemy, just an unfamiliar friend
You might not recognize me from before the war began
And how could you know after everything they told you
I'm not your enemy, I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy, I'm not your enemy, no
I'm not your enemy, I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy, only love can save us now
