

Temptation

Greg Holden

What are we doing here?
I'm losing control
The world is on fire now
And there is nowhere safe for us to go

So let me point you to the chaos
I'll show you right up to the top
You'll see the castle full of liars and
All the momentum we could try to stop

So let's just give into temptation, c-come on
Just let go of the frustration, c-come on
A quick and easy liberation, c-come on
Hey, come on, hey, c-come on

I am not playing here
I'm out of my mind
Nothing is gonna change
Until we bring this bullshit into light

So let me point you to the chaos
Gonna take everything you've got
It's gonna creep into your nightmares
Just to check there's nothing it forgot

So let's just give into temptation, c-come on
Just let go of the frustration, c-come on
A quick and easy liberation, c-come on
Hey, come on, hey, c-come on, come on, oh

Hey, hey
Hey, hey

So let's just give into temptation, c-come on
Just let go of the frustration, c-come on
A quick and easy liberation, c-come on
Let's just give into temptation, c-come on
Come on, come on
