

Thinking of You

Greg Holden

I would jump ship
For those mountains
Cause I've been counting
The minutes since I left that little town

The storm is coming
My thoughts are running in my mind
Taking up the time I should be

Thinking of you
You've got a hold of me and I'm
Thinking of you
Something is pulling me and I'm
Thinking of you
Are you thinking of me too?

I'm moving on
With no direction
Somethings missing
Did I leave a part of me in that little town

If I'd kept my feet on solid ground
If I'd kept my cool I would've found
The reason that I'm nowhere just

Thinking of you
You've got a hold of me and I'm
Thinking of you
Something is pulling me and I'm
Thinking of you
Are you thinking of me too?
