

I Will Not Resign

Greg Laswell

Pardon me
While I oversimplify
I'm not here to slight all your reasons why
I know you're justified lingering in your pain
I'm not the first to say it
So I'll whisper it here today

Keep your head up
Keep your head up along the way
Keep your head up
Never mind what you think it takes

I hear you asking, "What Now?"
Not sure that I know
But I miss the days I used to
And I miss your afterglow
It's been a long farewell to yesterday
I won't pretend to know how
We're not defined by our choices
But our response to them now

So keep your head up
Keep your head up along the way
Keep your head up
Never mind what you think it takes

And of the never-ending goodbye
I'll see you next Sunday
I'm not the first to say it
So allow me for my sake!

Keep your head up
Keep your head up along the way
Keep your head up
Never mind what you think it takes

I will not resign
I will not resign
I will not resign
I will not resign
I will not resign
I will not resign
I will not resign
