

Love the Poison

Gregg Allman

Sweet temptation, it pulled me in
I had my heaven with a taste of sin
Now, she made it easy, the first one's free
But the more I get now the more I need

But I love the poison
I love the poison
But it's killing me

I thought I was strong, a man in control
Can't do without her now, not to save my soul
Life's a spoonful day by day
Feeling my good life, aww, slip away

'Cause I love the poison
I love the poison
It's killing me
It's killing me, yeah

Well, I've tried and tried to pull myself away
I keep coming back now for one more taste

'Cause I love the poison
Yes, I love the poison
I love the poison
It's killing me

Well, I love the poison
I love the poison
I love the poison
It's killing me
It's killing me, yeah
Yeah, I love the poison
