

Arrival

Gregorian

Sing, sing
Sing the song
They sang with us
When they sailed away
Bring, bring
Bring them back again
To these lonely shores
One day

We'll be here
Awaiting their arrival
How that moments
Gonna shine
May they ring then
In our hearts
That jubilant bells
Of "Auld Lang Syne"

Sing, sing, sing
The sing of sirens
If that is what it takes
Bring, bring
Bring them back again
To each lonely heart
That aches

I'll be first to know
Of your arrival
I'll be first
To pour the wine
May they ring
Then in our hearts
The jubilant bells
Of "Auld Lang Syne"

I'll be first to know
Of your arrival
I'll be first
To pour the wine
May they ring
Then in our hearts
The jubilant bells
Of "Auld Lang Syne"

Sing, sing, sing
A song of sadness
That they are
So long gone
Bring, bring, bring
A ray hope
And the courage
To go on

We'll be here
Awaiting their arrival
How that moments
Gonna shine

May they ring
Then in our hearts
That jubilant bells
Of "Auld Lang Syne"

We'll be here
Awaiting their arrival
How that moments
Gonna shine
May they ring
Then in our hearts
That jubilant bells
Of "Auld Lang Syne"

Sing, sing, sing
A song
They sang with us
When they sailed away.
