Geysír Nationale

Gregory and the Hawk

We went down to the shore on a day that was warm With the end of my fist, I thanked you for this Over watch of fields and feelings I've met I could pray to the day I haven't felt them yet

The waves will watch you go 'Til you're gone
And you come home no more