

Party in the Slum

Gregory Isaacs

I hope you're gonna come
There is a party in the slum
So I-dren bring your sistren and come
Reggae music entertains more than I, whoa
And everything, yeah, is gonna be alright, whoa oh
Everything is gonna be alright

Now shake your shoulders, move your hip
Georgy, best to camp around, let each man have a sit
It seems that mankind is been reborn again
The worst of enemy is now the best of friend
And everything, yeah, is gonna be alright
Everything, yeah, is gonna be alright, whoa oh

I hope you're gonna come
At the party in the slum

Come shake your shoulders, move your hip, yeah
Best to camp around, let each man have a sit
It seems that mankind is been reborn again
The worst enemy is now my best friend
The worst of enemy is now the best of friend
And everything, yeah, is gonna be alright, alright
Everything, yeah, is gonna be alright
Whoa oh, I'm telling you
Everything, is gonna be alright
At the party tonight

I wanna wrap you 'till it's broad day light
Be not afraid
I know the cup won't drink
Things will be cool
So don't play no fool
Party in the slum
Even the president will come
