

Permanent Lover

Gregory Isaacs

I need your love not just for an hour
I need a permanent lover

And there is something so fantastic about you
And it's what I discovered
Now getting to know you more and more each day
Will mek me respond to your calling every day

I need a lover
I need you when the lights are low
I need you when the breeze start to blow
I need you when the moon shine above
I need someone to resurrect my love
I need a lover, not for an hour
I need a permanent lover
Someone who I can control, aah

I need you when the lights are low
I need you when the breeze start to blow
I need you when the moon shine above
I need someone to resurrect my love
I need a lover, not for an hour
I need a permanent lover
Someone who I can control
I need a lover, permanent lover
Not for an hour, someone who I can control, Lord

Lover, I really, really need a lover
I really, really need a lover
Not for an hour, someone who I can control, aah

I really, really need a lover
Permanent lover
