

Real Truth

Gregory Porter

You can leave your ego at the door
When you come inside, you won't need it no more
This is no hour of make-believe
Open your mind and you'll receive
The real, the real

Everybody now can live a lie
Take it as their word, you dare not ask why
This is no hour of make-believe
Open your heart and you'll receive
The real, the real

You can leave your ego at the door (Leave it at the door)
When you come inside, you won't need it no more
This is no hour of make-believe
Open your mind and you'll receive
The real, the real

Everybody now can live a lie
Take it as their word, you never ask why
This is no hour of make-believe
Open your mind and you'll receive
The real, the real truth

(Ready to go)
Real truth
Real truth
Real truth
Real truth

Everybody now can live a lie
They can tell a story and you dare not ask why
This is no hour of make-believe
Open your mind and you'll receive
The real, the real truth

The real truth, ooh
